

VOTE - © 2001 Spook Handy, BMI

When politicians come to town and kiss babies til their noses turns brown
you can bet your bottom dollar they want your vote.
So speak your mind, cause believe it or not this world has become a big melting pot.
It's easy to get yourself lost in the lot cause the world's made up of all kinds of people, so

: CH: Vote! Don't you never mind the weather.
Get your butt in the booth and pull down the lever.
Vote! For worse or for better let your voice be heard.

We've got fuzzy headed peace loving carrot chomping farmer boys,
Skin headed neo-nazi face slapping paranoids,
Fat cats sitting back scoffing at the tabloids, yup.
And there's cross burning, homophobic, church going family types,
Flag burning, anti-war, give the poor more types,
Out of school, know it all, Cliff Clavin prototypes,.....

CH:

We've got men hating aggravating right wing feminists
Pro-life clinic burning gospel preaching terrorists
City dwelling unemployed folks who can't stand it no more,
Sky choking river killing free market advocates
Tree loving owl hugging pro-environmentalists
Urban folk high on dope raising up their clenched fists.....

CH:

Now Farmer Josh lives up on the mountain.
grows his own food drinks from Mother Nature's fountain
and only gets down into town around once a week.
And all the pretty young gals from the near by high school stop by his farm cause they think he's so cool chewing on wheat grass and spitting out philosophy.
He says, "Looking at life cosmologically,
we're all cells in the body of the Almighty
and with God-like nature we create our own reality.
But down here on Earth - that's a different ball of wax
We've got to eat,....., pay all kinds of taxes,
and form governments that have laws to pass....
